TRAVELLING TO AUSTRALIA:

- From 21 February 2022, visa holders who are fully vaccinated with two doses of a Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) approved COVID-19 vaccine can travel to Australia quarantine-free, without the need to apply for a travel exemption.
- To be eligible to enter Australia, international travellers must:
 - hold a valid Australian visa.
 - be fully vaccinated with two doses of a COVID-19 vaccine approved by Australia's Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA) and provide proof of vaccination status.
 - Present a negative rapid antigen test (RAT) or Polymerase chain reaction (PCR) Covid-19 test taken within 24 hours of departure (unless a medical exemption applies).
- As of 7 February 2022, fully vaccinated visa holders can enter all states and territories quarantine-free from 21 February 2022, except for Western Australia.
- Travellers will need to comply with requirements in the state or territory of their arrival, and any other state or territories that they plan to travel to. Information on entry requirements is updated regularly so it is important to check the latest requirements before travelling. Travellers are also encouraged to check any requirements for stopover destinations that they are transitioning through.
- For requirements for travel into specific states and territories in Australia, visit the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs website | State and Territory Information.
- For more information on travelling to Australia visit the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs | Travelling to Australia

Alert:

All travellers coming to Australia are required to provide critical health information prior to their departure, through the Digital Passenger Declaration \(DPD\)

<https://covid19.homeaffairs.gov.au/digital-passenger-declaration> . You can start your DPD 7 days before travel, but must complete it within 72 hours before departure for Australia.
